Hello Again Everyone,

School has finally started back and now is the time to give yourself a break. Hopefully that means you'll have a less hectic schedule and therefore more time to quilt. Schedule in those sewing minutes! You'll feel more relaxed and ready to face your days....and you may even be able to get a few gifts ready for the holidays!

Our Pillowcase Challenge has been sew successful this year, but contributions seem to be slowing a bit. More pillowcases for the charities are still needed, so please dig deep into your stash, scraps, or your neighbors, and see what you can do. We are $\frac{3}{4}$ of the way to reach our goal of 1,000. We NEED more....please!

Some great classes are going on that you don't want to miss. Ardyth is teaching a beginning garment class that will show you how to construct a very attractive shirt. Dee Christopher will be back again with her Rose Garden "Beyond Beginning Quilting" class for those that missed her last one. Students from her last class just loved Dee and have requested more classes, so she will also be teaching Paper Piecing and Appliqué. Check out our calendar for the specific dates. The Bag Lady class has been such a success that Cheryl has increased her classes to every month. Again, check our website or better yet, come in and see for yourself the samples on display.

And finally our "Sew What" social has been a fun way to meet new people and get out one night a month. It was very popular last month and signups continue to go strong. Bring your project(s) and spend an evening having fun and getting to meet new friends.

As Always, Happy Quilting

Nancy
